Army Expert To Discuss Communists

Col. William R. Kintner, formerly an officer with the Central Intelligence Agency and a U.S. Army specialist in international political military affairs, will be a featured speaker at the 1960 New Orleans Cold War Seminar this weekend.

His appearance at the Armed Forces Week event is scheduled for 10:30 a. m. Saturday.

Seminar chairman Frank X. Armiger said the two-day session of lectures will be devoted to discussions of Communist ideologies and techniques. Sessions will be held in the Council chamber at City Hall from 9 a. m. to 6:30 p. m. Friday and from 9:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. Saturday.

The school is sponsored by all branches of the Armed Forces, by the New Orleans Federation of Churches, and by the Chamber of Commerce of the Greater New Orleans Area. Col. Kintner presently is assigned to the Chief Research and Development of the Department of the Army, for special projects with the Foreign Policy Research Institute at the University of Pennsylvania.

He has been assigned to the Office of the Special Assistant to the President, Nelson Rockefeller, and the office of the Secretary of Defense. His books include "The Front is Everywhere" and "Protracted Conflict."
